"... be ready always to give answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you ... "

1 Peter 3:15

INTRODUCTION

When I was a little boy, hardly anyone could afford food, and especially there was no money for entertainment. However, my Methodist mother would allow the children to go watch the folk at the "Glory Barn."

The Baptists had a two week revival every summer, the Methodists did the same, but I think the folk at the "Glory Barn" had one revival per year. It started January 1 and closed December 31. Although it cost nothing, the kids thought it was the best entertainment at any price. At the "Glory Barn" they shouted, sang to the top of their lungs, lifted their arms, clapped their hands, spoke in a strange language, and were happy all the time. They didn't care if folk laughed at them. They were so happy that obviously they didn't even know the country was in hard financial depression.

I was told that they were just poor, ignorant people who didn't know any better than to act that way. However, I never was able to forget their joy, laughter, kindness, and assurance during difficult days when many rich people were committing suicide over financial reversal. After almost 25 years as a pastor, foreign missionary, denominational worker with several degrees after my name, and a broken heart, I discovered what they had.

It is all contained in the scriptures of this little booklet. Please keep these scriptures near you until you memorize them. When Satan attacks you, quote the Bible!! When a doubter or unbeliever asks, "Why?"... quote the Bible!!!

Whether you are sick spiritually or physically, take this medicine, confess your healing, and it is done.

My prayer is that God will bless your life with these scriptures and your confession.
